O R D E R:

In the letter 1st read above, the Special Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has stated that, the Andhra Pradesh State Cooperative Union (APSCU) Ltd, is an Apex Organization formed/registered on 10-01-1966 under the provisions of Andhra Pradesh Cooperative Societies Act 1964 by merging the erstwhile “Andhra Desa Cooperative Union, Rajahmundry” (1919) and “Hyderabad Central Cooperative Union , Hyderabad”(1925) and it is functioning with objectives to promote and develop the Cooperative movement in Andhra Pradesh, to guide, to impart training and to assist the people in their efforts to build expand the cooperative sector and to serve as an exponent of cooperative opinion in accordance with cooperative principles.

2. During bifurcation of state of Andhra Pradesh, the A.P. State Cooperative Union Ltd., is placed under Schedule-X of A.P. Reorganization Act 2014. As per section 75 (1) of A.P. Reorganization Act 2014, the institutions notified under Schedule-X, shall continue to provide facilities to the people of the other state for such period and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the two State Governments with in a period of one year from the appointed day or if no agreement is reached within the said period, as may be fixed by order of the Central Government. The general body of the union, in its meeting held on 11-02-2015 has unanimously passed following conditional resolutions for demerger of the union as per the guidelines issued in Circular Mem.No.2641/GAD/SR/2014-2, dated 19-02-2015.

A. Distribution of assets as per State Reorganization Act i.e the permanent assets should belongs to the states, where they are located.

B. The funds will be allotted to Andhra Pradesh and Telangana State on 58.32:41.68 ratio respectively.

3. Accordingly, the Managing Director, Andhra Pradesh State Cooperative Union submitted demerger proposals to both Governments through their respective State Registrar of Cooperative Societies. The Special Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has further stated that now the Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Telangana amended the bye laws of the Andhra Pradesh State Cooperative Union by changing the Name and Address, Area of Operation (confined to 10 Districts of Telangana) and hence, the A.P. Cooperative Union Employees Association, Hyderabad, requested Special Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies to register the Andhra Pradesh State Cooperative Union by covering 13 districts of Andhra Pradesh. He further reported that because of the unilateral action of the Government of the Telangana State, the Managing Director of the Andhra Pradesh State Cooperative Union is now functioning as Managing Director of the so called Telangana State Cooperative Union and has left out the 13 districts of Andhra Pradesh. As a result, the Cooperative Training Centres at Rajahmundry, Vijayawada, Kadapa and Anantapur along with staff and properties are left in the lurch without a State Cooperative Union to take care of them and the service to Andhra Pradesh area are in jeopardy. The Special Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has therefore requested to accord permission to register a new State Cooperative Union for the State of Andhra Pradesh to provide cooperative education and training for the Andhra Pradesh area.

4. Government after careful examination of the proposal in the light of instructions issued in the 2nd and 3rd read above, hereby accord permission to the Special Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh to register a new State Cooperative Union for the State of the Andhra Pradesh to provide cooperative education and training for the Andhra Pradesh area.

5. The Spl. Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take necessary action for distribution of assets, liabilities and Staff of the erstwhile Cooperative Union between two Unions of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana in the ratio of population of 58.32 and 41.68 respectively as per the resolution of the Managing Committee of the Union after registration of the Andhra Pradesh State Cooperative Union.
